

was the bright, sunny day Parrotfish class went to the history museum.
It was cold so we went to Fone the place. Elliott came with me.
The small blue fox was detected as a tardis. We felt excited.
The doctor took us for a ride in the tardis. Then we crashed on Skaro. He pressed the wrong button. The Daleks found us and captured us. The doctor is in a cage and they took the tardis with me init. The Daleks could not find me as I was in the swim inc and they took the tardis with me init. The dalek did not find me because I was in the swimming pool. I sneaked out off the tardis and I was on the dalek ship. Then I rescued Elliott from the tetchurchamber. Next we ran away and we bumped into the doctor we put bombs about the ship so we could go up the ship. We went into the tardis and blew up the dalek ship. The doctor took to school and the children were in the... been.
