

Mystery Island
Animal people for a funny story

One Monday the Zebra teacher told her students that they were going on a surprise trip on Tuesday. The students were really excited, so at the end of class they all headed home "Bye." the teacher said. "Bye Miss Stripe" we all said to her.

The next day the parents packed the children's bags with sweets and the kids headed off to school. There they were on the bus to their surprise trip! On the way, a clown showed up and said: "Oh, hi there! My name is Smiley Face can I borrow the bus to go to my friend Pie Face?" asked the funny looking man. Everyone giggled and the teacher said "Hum... no but you can come with us." the man looked at the teacher and said "let me think... oh got it, spell this kids: N-O spells...?" "NO!" the kids shouted loudly but surprisingly Ice-land didn't hear them, but all the others did "Well then bye" said Miss Stripes driving off. The clown shrugged his shoulders and walked off. "What a rude man" the teacher thought.

Then they passed a tiger and what a big, big, big, big tiger he was! He was called Mr. Orange Peel "What the hell? Oh it's a Zebra person. Hello hey do you mind if you can take me to my lion friend? He lives at this address" Orange Peel said handing over the piece of paper with the address on it. "Surely we can" said Miss Stripes and the friendly tiger got on the bus.

We soon got to the lion's home and the tiger knocked on the door and the lion opened the door and his name was Sunny. "Oh, hello Orange Peel how are you today?" Sunny asked. "I'm great thank you. Anyway, would you want to go on a ride?" asked Orange Peel. "FIRST let me get dressed." said Sunny. Orange Peel looked over at Miss Stripes and she said "I thought we animals don't do clothes" I know he's just silly" said the tiger.

A while later Sunny was ready and they both jumped onto the bus. Then one of the children shouted "STOP!" the teacher looked back and saw that Sunny was sitting on a child! Quickly she shouted: "SUNNY YOU'RE SITTING ON A STUDENT!" "Oh sorry" said Sunny looking at the student "you really shouldn't be a chameleon" are you serious I didn't even change colour!" said the student crossing her arms.

Next, they passed by a rhino and it was so big it would make your mind explode! So don't think about it, ok? Don't even think about thinking! Anyway, that rhino was pooping. Soooooo, Miss Stripes drove the bus really, really fast like a really, really fast bus! Of course, it was normal, it was very normal, for a rhino to poop in an outdoor kitty box that wasn't his. He was called Sprinkle Butt... a normal name, really! The rhino got on the bus for a random reason, and had a normally normal fart and another and another and a couple more, until it fell asleep snoring.

They were right outside the surprise and all the students cheered as they saw their school trip place it was Mystic Land! But the rhino was so big the bus exploded! But everyone survived...

They went inside just in time, said the keeper called Kiki, a golden retriever, and next to Kiki was her puppy called Luna (she was sometimes called lulu) she was soooo CUTE!

First up was the dragon cage. First there was the water dragon, she was named Sea Sea ☐☐ normal name for a water dragon! Next was a night dragon called Moon ☐ again normal name... Next was a fire dragon called well... a really weird name, he was called: Fire ☐, last name: Dragon ☐.

Next were the unicorns ☐. First up, water ☐ corn called Puddles, normally normal but not for Luna, she said it was weird anyway. Next is a night corn called Monday. She is so terrible and loves to wake people up.

Next up, is the griffin cage! Where they had the most fun, because you get to fly and ride them and all the kids get to keep one! So, the kids flu and road on the griffins.

After, they spent an hour playing with the element puppies: Water, Fire, Night, Nature, Earth and Daylight, the light puppy, she was the queen of the dogs ☐ and Kiki was her sidekick AND so was Lulu (aka Luna).

The children were so happy about their trip but they still remembered about one thing...

Soon Miss Stripes announced that they were going home, all the children stared at her. "What's wrong, you don't want to go home?" asked the teacher "Hummm, the problem is we can't go home", said a tiger child. "What the hell? Are yo..... oh the bus blew up!!! Hehehe right!" said the teacher embarrassed. Then Sunny said "How about we take you there, I mean me and Orange Peel.", "Actually, yes how about that?" said Orange Peel. All the kids climbed on, and so did the teacher.

After a while they were back at school, just in time to go into the class and then all the parents came around. The kids told their parents about the trip and the parents looked a little confused. "At least the parents don't know about any of this." thought Miss Stipes. But then she heard all the kids telling their parents and she face palmed herself.
